Hello and Welcome Back

HELLO!! to all the new students on campus. We know that this is a new and sometimes trying experience. We have all been in the shoes of being the "new kid on the block." It may seem overwhelming at times, but if you have any questions or concerns, there are numerous people to talk to and they are willing to help. First, your mentors can be a big help. They are there to help you overcome any stumbling blocks you may encounter. If you aren't sure who your mentor is, you should find out now! Also make it a point to talk individually to your professors, they are willing to listen and help. They all keep office hours; feel free to stop in and introduce yourself. If you have any questions, don't hesitate to ask your mentor about it

There are facilities on campus who love to help. The Learning Support Center hosts numerous tutors who are students just like yourself. These tutors know what it is like to be studying and worrying about tests and finals. They are willing to put aside their studies to help you with yours. The Write Inn hosts consultants who are glad to help with any papers you have to write. Stop in to the Learning Support Center and the Write Inn today. They are both located on the 3rd floor of Montgomery Hall.

Also we wish to welcome back all the returning students. Returning can be a great experience, looking forward to completing another semester and taking another step on the road to completing your education. So WELCOME BACK all.

It's the beginning of a new century, and the beginning of a new semester. For everyone, we have a chance to make a difference in the world. For those of us coming back to school, we have a chance to make a difference in our own little world. We have expectations to fulfill, those we place upon ourselves, along with those placed upon us by others. Some are returning adults, some are new graduates fresh out of high school, whatever the case may be, we all hope to make a splash in the world.

To fulfill these expectations don't set your goals so high that they are unobtainable, set smaller short range goals to make it easier to reach your long range goals. Study for a first quiz or test, there is no need to even think about the final yet. If you study for the quiz's and tests, you will be ready for the finals when they come around. When you reach one small goal, then you can go on to the next one.

HOW TO SPOT A RETURNING ADULT STUDENT ON CAMPUS

You're the only person sitting in the front row in class.

The music in the student union gives you a headache.

You think you're the only student in class who doesn't know what the professor is talking about.

You can remember when John F. Kennedy was President.

You drink coffee in the afternoon.

You read the obituaries before the comics.

You've never eaten a deep-dish pizza.

You think the legal drinking age should be raised to 30.

You think ELO is a political group and Ted Nugent is a candy gar.

You think you're the only student in America who's broke.

You wonder how some people can spend 15 hours a day in the student union, doing nothing.

You get nauseated watching a freshman eating a Twinkie and a Coke for breakfast.

You've never played a video game.

When someone says your professor is "far out," you wonder if you'll have to take a cab to get to his office.

When you overhear someone say the "grass" on campus isn't what it used to be, you wonder why the university doesn't invest in some Turf Builder.

You wonder what the girls see in the boys, and the boys see in the girls.

Everyone stares in disbelief when you tell them you're "just here to learn."

Your favorite shoes are older than most of your classmates.

When you talk about your corns to a younger student, she says she didn't know the college had a major in agriculture.

Someone tells you that he didn't think there was life after 40.

You suddenly notice one day that you're asking more questions than the rest of the class combined.

You don't carry your books in a backpack.

You talk about painting the living room over the spring break, while everyone else is talking about Florida.

You suspect that the girl next to you paid more for her jeans than you paid for your first car.

You're the first one to arrive in class, and the last one to leave.

You go to bed thankful that you'll never have to be 18 again.

Food For Thought

Did you ever hear the expression that Rome was not built in a day? Think about this phrase along the lines of our studies for our classes.

Most Freshman will soon hear in the Venango Experience

Seminars that it is important to set aside a certain amount of time each day outside of class to study. The approximate time suggested is 3 hours for every hour in class. By giving this advice, one can not guarantee students to receive all A's; but in time this will set a good foundation for building important study skills for the harder classes yet to come. Work hard, study well, and set good solid goals for yourself to obtain. Your educational success will reap great rewards for you in the end.

A THOUGHT

Two traveling angels stopped to spend the night in the home of a wealthy family. The family was rude and refused to let the angels stay in the mansion's guest room. Instead the angels were given a small space in the cold basement. As they made their bed on the hard floor, the older angel saw a hole in the wall and repaired it. When the younger angel asked why, the older angel replied, "Things aren't always what they seem" The next night the pair came to rest at the house of a very poor, but very hospitable farmer and his wife. After sharing what little food they had the couple let the angels sleep in their bed where they could have a good night's rest. When the sun came up the next morning the angels found the farmer and his wife in tears. Their only cow, whose milk had been their sole income, lay dead in the field. The younger angel was infuriated and asked the older angel, "how could you have let this happen? The first man had everything, yet you helped him," she accused. "The second family had little, they were willing to share everything, and you let the cow die." "Things aren't always what they seem," the older angel replied. "When we stayed in the basement of the mansion, I noticed there was gold stored in that hole in the wall. Since the owner was so obsessed with greed and unwilling to share his good fortune, I sealed the wall so he wouldn't find it. Then last night as we slept in the farmers bed, the angel of death came for his wife. I gave him the cow instead. Things aren't always what they seem." Sometimes that is exactly what happens when things don't turn out the way they should. If you have faith, you just need to trust that every outcome is always to your advantage. You might not know it until some time later...

Just A Note To Alert Everyone,

A Clarion/Venango student that I know was stopped on their way to Clarion Campus and was fined $90.00 for having their parking permit hanging from their rear view mirror.

Name withheld upon request

Thank you.

Pennsylvania State Motor Vehicle Law says that nothing should be hanging on your rear view mirror. If the police pull you over you will be asked to remove what is hanging there and most likely fined for the item on the mirror. The Clarion University Parking Permit reads, "Hang from rear view mirror when parked."

Message from The Career Center

Hello everyone from the Career Center. I wish to give you a brief summary of the Employment/Mentor Program and ask you for your assistance.

The Employment/Mentor Program is a program enabling students the opportunity to pair up with an employer in the community within their field of study. This experience allows the students to gain insight into what is to come after graduation and to have the advantage of doing so with someone who can answer their individual questions. This program will provide networking contacts as well as a good role model. They need only commit to five hours for the semester, yet are welcome to spend more.

I now ask that you take a few minutes of your time to jot down the names of any upcoming graduates whom you think would be interested or other students whom you feel would truly benefit from this program. These names may be left in my mailbox in Frame Office or given to me in room 230 Montgomery Hall, ext. 277. My email address is s_camanning. My office hours are Monday and Wednesday 9:00 to 4:00, Thursday 11:00 to 6:00, and Fridays 8:30 to 1:00. Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,
Christine Manning

SEXUAL HARASSMENT

The Venango VOICE deadline for submissions is Wednesdays 5 PM in the VOICE mailbox in Frame office or email the editor at ken@csonline.net.

Venango VOICE is published periodically by Venango Campus, 1801 West First St. Oil City. Articles in it reflect the philosophy of Venango Campus students, and not necessarily the views of Clarion University of PA.

Clarion University is committed to equal opportunity and affirmative action for all persons in its educational programs, activities and employment.

Direct equal opportunities to the Assistant to the President for Social Equity, 216 Carrier Administration Building.

Another semester is now underway, we are settling into our schedules, and getting to know new people in our classes. I'm sure we all hope we have made a good first impression. If we haven't, we can try harder next semester.

Have you made that good first impression, if so, Great! On the other hand, what if others are now avoiding you, did you do or say something to turn those people away?

We are all individuals with our own rights, and these rights include: the right to be free of any form of sexual harassment. What this means is, we don't have to put up with any unwanted touching or any sexual innuendoes. We don't have to put up with sexual harassment from any one; this includes professors as well as other students. This is our right and it is also the law!! Clarion Universities policy is to ensure no student experiences a hostile environment while in college.

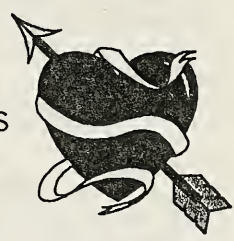

If you feel nervous or uneasy when someone walks into the room, talk with someone. Some of your choices are: your Mentor; Dr. Barb Reagle, MH 219; Student Services, MH 222; Kay King, Campus Counselor, MH 236

Women's Support Group

The women's support group at Venango Campus was started several years ago when a fellow student recognized a need here at the Campus for a place where women could safely talk about anything of concern to them. College can be stressful and lonely. The support group is a place to be heard, understood and supported. It is a place to find other women with perhaps similar problems/concerns and to listen and learn how to cope. It is a place to meet new people and to make new friends.

The group meets here on campus once a week on Wednesday from 2 - 3:30. Anything discussed in the group is confidential. The group is facilitated by Kay King, Campus Counselor. Any women interested can contact Kay King at extension 283.

Me?.....

Get involved?????

A Mentoring program?.....

YES You!

The Employee Mentoring program is looking for students like you, who would benefit from having their own personal mentor to "show them the ropes" of the work world.

A mentor is a professional in the community in your field of interest. He or she can give you one on one attention so necessary in developing the professional skills required to find and succeed in the job of your dreams.

Your mentor serves as good role model and makes a great net-working contact.

Having a mentor is a great way to gain first hand knowledge about the business world and also what the employer in the field is looking for in an employee.

Involvement in this program involves a small time commitment. You only need to spend a minimum of five hours a semester, but of course you are welcome to spend more!

Act soon! Deadline to sign up is February 11th. Sound interesting and want more information? If So, contact Christine Manning in the Career Center, Room 230, Montgomery Hall or call extension 277.

Write-Inn Open House

The Write-Inn, 319 Montgomery Hall is completing its schedule. You can now come and see us:

Monday, 10:30 - 12:45

Tuesday, 10 - 12, 1 - 3:30, 4 - 6

Wednesday 9:30 - 11:30, 12:30 - 1:45, 3:30 - 5:30

Thursday 11:00 - 12:00

During these hours you will find a writing consultant (usually more than one) to "listen to" your paper, ask good questions to help you think of more things to say, and to suggest points about grammar that you both look up together. Why come? Our writing consultants won't pounce on commas and spelling first. They'll respect you and what you want to say. They'll listen. They'll give you honest, useful feedback like "I hear you saying....." and "I'm not sure what you mean here," and so on. Remember, unlike your spouse, child or roommate, your writing consultant doesn't live with you. Our motto is "How may we help you?" Get acquainted now and avoid the rush later.

Consultants include Marlene Baker (T, 1-3), Lisa Birchard (W, 12:30 - 1:30, T11:00 - 12:00), Lance Bowes (T 4-6), Carrie Couch (M, 12:30-1:45, 3:30-4:45, W, 12:30-1:45), Rob Culp (W, 9:30 - 11:30); Stacy Fitzgerald (M, 10:30-12:30); Tammy Hartzell (T, 1:30-3:30), Peggy Sue Osten, Eva Palmer (W, 3:30 - 5:30) Lisa Plasan (M, 10:45-12:45), Tara Rimer (T, 10-12).

Sadie Hawkins Dance Is C.A.B. Sweetheart

The next C.A.B. sponsored event promises to be a real sweetheart. The Sadie Hawkins Sweetheart Dance is lovingly set for Friday February 11th at the Franklin Elks Club. Lets not get to mushy now after all it is a semi-formal affair complete with dinner and dancing starting at 6:30 PM.

Tickets are now available in the Venango Campus Bookstore for only $3 each. If you have someone special buy two and save a buck for a candy heart and just unfold a green Abe Lincoln. All proceeds from the event will go toward future C.A.B. events.

E-Mail

Have you logged on to your student e-mail account? Every student has campus e-mail. It's a great way to communicate with friends and instructors. Stop by Montgomery Hall 311 and talk to a monitor about opening your account.

GAS OUT

Last year on April 30, 1999, a gas out was staged across Canada and the U.S. to bring the price of gas down, and it worked. It's time to do something about it again.

This time, lets make it for three days instead of just one. The oil cartel decided to slow production to drive up gasoline prices. Lets see how many Canadian\American people we can get to ban together for a three day period in April, NOT TO BUY ANY GASOLINE, during those three days.

LET'S HAVE A GAS OUT. Do not buy any gasoline from APRIL 7, 2000, THROUGH APRIL 9, 2000.

Buy what you need before the dates listed above, or after, but try not to buy any during the GAS OUT. We brought the prices down once before, and we can do it again! Come on North America lets stand together.

WE CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Spring Time???? AWWW the Joys of springtime. We have had some very beautiful weather; we have all come out and enjoyed the warmth on our back, and the sun shining brightly in our faces. It came at a time when most of us needed a distraction from the pressures of professors and school bearing down upon us. The warm sunshine made us gaze out the window and take notice that maybe winter wasn't going to last for ever.

Unfortunately, the warm weather was only a taste of what will be. The warmth of summer is still in the future, but we can all be a little more hopeful, A little brighter, that summer will be come when we can enjoy it after we make it through finals week

The Adult Learners Organization exists as an advocacy and support group for adult students.

An adult student is defined as, if you consider yourself an adult and a student, then you are. We have been viewed as strictly a social organization.

Our primary purpose is as a support group that uses social functions as a means to advocate policies to help returning adult students and their families. We would like to know what help and support you need so that we can become involved.

We need new and active participating people to become involved in the activities of this organization. We need committed participants who are willing to help in solving their own needs and the needs of others.

We will be having a re-organizational meeting on Friday, March 10, 2000, at 3:00 pm, 4th floor lounge Montgomery Hall to inform and discuss new and better ways to accomplish these goals.

We urge you to help us make this campus a better place for all students. If you can come to this organizational meeting, we will see you there.

If for some reason you are interested or have a concern that we can help with and you are unable to attend please contact Sam Ackerman, President, at Samora@toolcity.net, Lou Adelson, Advisor, at the Venango Campus at adelson@mail.clarion.edu, or ask any active member in person any questions you may have.

We will be serving refreshments and we welcome all to come see and here what we are all about.

The play that the Student Senate produced and brought to our little campus was a complete success. Every one who attended both evenings of the play thoroughly enjoyed the production. The comments I received from faculty, staff and students were excellent.

"The Student Senate should be commended for the wonderful production of William Shakespeare, Abridged which they brought to Venango Campus.

Although it took hundreds of hours of work, I believe that the students learned a lot about the ins and outs of putting on a theater production."

"KUDOS to all who were involved!!"

Dr. Barb Reagle

"The play was phenomenal, I enjoyed the production thoroughly. It was excellent, very funny."

Dr. Phil Termin

"The play was a lot of hard work. We had a very good turn out for both nights of the play. Thank you to all the cast members"

Jim Winger

Congratulations to the Student Senate from the Venango VOICE!!

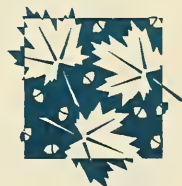

Spring Blossoms at Venango Campus

A noticeable change has taken place here at Venango Campus since the return of the students after break. Its everywhere but you have to look around to see and enjoy it. I am of course talking about the early signs of the spring season. The next time you are walking between classes check the Quercus Palusnes or the Quercus Petrati. If time permits you may even look for the Hyacinthus or Narcissus starting to break their way out of the soil to emerge as early emsaries of floral community. Soon the sound of lawn mowers will be filtering in study rooms to make things just a little harder to get ready for finals. Finals? Yes they are also mixed in with this fantastic time of year. There is even talk of a new event called the Slope coming this year to Venango Campus. So be sure to celebrate the Vernal Equinox and get things rolling for spring at Venango Campus.

A FEW LAFFS

Due to the extremely responsible manner in which you have handled your account, your card has been canceled...

Two bowling teams charter a double-decker bus; they're going to Atlantic City for the weekend.

One team is in the bottom of the bus, and the other team is in the top of the bus. The team down below is whooping it up when one of them realizes he doesn't hear anything from the top.

He walks up the stairs, and here are all the guys from the second team clutching the seats in front of them with white knuckles, scared to death. He says, "What the heck's goin' on? We're down here havin' a grand old time." One of the guys from the second team says, "Yeah, but you guys've got a driver."

the good fortune to run into the ones I do;

VENANGO CAMPUS STUDENT IN FAMILY CIRCLE MAGAZINE

Recently, Clarion University, Venango Campus student Jodi Baker won a trip to New York City. She along with a former Venango Campus student traveled to New York, where they visited Central Park, and Trump Towers.

While in New York Jodi received a make over from Family Circle Magazine. When asked how it was received at school, she said "Every one likes it." She could have gone on forever talking about it, maybe she likes being in the lime light?

For one with political ambitions, you would have to like being in the public eye.

Jodi is a Communications Major and city council member in Franklin, PA, as well as a mother of three, talk about a busy schedule!

To put herself forward as a politician, Jodi needs a somewhat serious but still approachable profile. • This understated navy suit fulfills that promise, with plenty of options. • A patterned scarf keeps it from becoming too masculine; a red or a white turtleneck is another daytime alternative. • For evening? A plain tee, dressy earrings and high-heeled pumps.

Event and Host: Candi Carver
Styling: Brian Green

Jodi
Member of House, 33; a city council member with political aspirations, studying to communicate.
"I rarely wore makeup, but I'm not afraid anymore. I watched and listened to the makeup artist."

Congratulations JODI !!!!

Do you have political ambitions?

Consumer Labels

In case you needed further proof that the human race is doomed by stupidity, here are some actual label instructions found on consumer goods:

On a Sears hairdryer: Do not use while sleeping.
On a bag of Fritos: You could be a winner! No purchase necessary.
Details inside. (The shoplifter special.)

On a bar of Dial soap: Directions: Use like regular soap.

On a Swann frozen dinners: Serving suggestion: Defrost. (But it's just a suggestion.)
On Tesco's tiramisu dessert (printed on the bottom of box): Do not turn upside-down.
On Marks & Spencer bread pudding: Product will be hot after heating.
On packaging for a Rowenta iron: Do not iron clothes on body.

On Boot's children's cough medicine: "Do not drive a car or operate machinery after taking this medication."
On Nytol sleep aid: Warning: May cause drowsiness.
On most brands of Christmas lights: "For indoor or outdoor use only." (As opposed to what?)

On a Japanese food processor: Not to be used for the other use. (I have to admit, I'm curious.)

On Sainsbury's peanuts: "Warning: contains nuts."
On an American Airlines packet of peanuts: "Instructions: Open packet, eat nuts."

On a child's Superman costume: "Wearing of this garment does not enable you to fly." (I don't blame the company, I blame the parents for this one.)

A few questions, a contest, and two local women, were off and running on a trip they will never forget. Jodi Baker is a current student, and Cindy Jarzab is a graduate of Clarion University of PA. Both were picked out of many contestants to go to New York City where each received makeovers sponsored by CTFA, Women Work, and Family Circle Magazine.

Jodi Baker is currently a student at Venango Campus, and Cindy Jarzab is now an Instructor in New Choices/New Options adult education at Venango Technology Center, (formerly known as Venango County Vocational-Technical School). Cindy was a Graduate Assistant in Student Services at Venango Campus and worked as a Yearbook Advisor, Career Center Counselor and an ITV Technician when the Distance Learning program was just getting of the ground.

Both Jodi and Cindy were featured in the March 7, 2000 issue of Family Circle Magazine. "They must have taken hundreds of rolls of film" said Cindy. On their three day trip they visited places like Trump Towers, New York City's Central Park in a midnight horse and buggy ride, and numerous five star restaurants. According to Cindy, Central Park at night isn't like it is depicted on the television shows; it was well lighted, with joggers out running and people out walking in the park at midnight.

They were kept on a very busy models schedule with the makeovers. Everything they did had a lot of thought put in to it. Both Cindy and Jodi were rubbing elbows with professional models and international makeup artists.

Foto, a girl from Greece cut their hair, Michael from Venezuela does head massages, Nancy from Peru is the fashion coordinator. The costumes or outfits they wore were very expensive. Cindy's outfit was a Peruvian Llama Wool Sweater ($500.), Pink Cashmere Blouse ($100.), and topped off with Platinum and Asian Oyster Pearl Earrings ($9200.).

The sponsors of the trip treated the women to meals at five star restaurants where a cup of coffee had a price tag of $12.00, and the meals were $38.00 on up into the hundreds of dollars. Their meals were very health conscious, with items such as salads, fish, spinach, and quiche on the menu, but when it came to the desserts, the healthy stuff went right out the window. Cindy said that one dessert, a "Death by Chocolate" type dessert, cost $90.00

The sponsors of the trip picked up the tab for everything. Cindy and Jodi did not have to pay for anything. But they did have a chance to go out shopping, Cindy told me the entire three days, she spent a total of $15.00 of her own money.

The trip may have been a lot work, but the way both Cindy and Jodi love to talk about it all, I would say they had a lot of fun. My guess is, these two ladies will be talking about this trip for years.

Door Slammin' Judge

It all started when an assistant public defender was late to court. It so enraged the judge, as he left for his chambers, he slammed the door hard enough to shatter the glass panel.

Just days before, he sentenced a man to six months in jail for slamming the same door.

The man he sentenced spent seventy days in jail before an appeals court overturned the sentence. (Pittsburgh Pennsylvania)

Wine, Dine, & Act Fine

Have Social Graces become a thing of the past? Certainly Not! The members of the Employment Mentor Program along with their guests were invited out to dine at the Inn at Franklin. It may not have been the social event of the season, but it was informative, it was fun, and we had some excellent food. Hosts Barb Lenar, Christine Manning, and Kathy Riley showed us all the Social Graces.

They led us through the appetizers, and into the soup, and then directed us through the main course. All the while telling us what we should and shouldn't do. Do you know the correct way to eat your soup is to spoon it away from you, and one never cuts all his food up at once. The proper way is to cut off a bite at a time. After we learned the correct way of eating our dinner, we dined on excellent cheese cake topped off a lovely strawberry. In the end we all learned some valuable tips on social etiquette.

And now thanks to our lovely hosts, we can all be just a little more refined and sophisticated.

Why do people behave the way they do?

Why do people behave the way they do? Psychology's famous question. However, psychology encompasses much more than just the study of people's actions. According to APA's Psychology Careers for the Twenty-First Century: "Psychology is a discipline with a bright future. Among fields requiring a college degree, it is expected to be the third fastest-growing field in America through the year 2005 and to continue to grow steadily for at least another dozen years after that."

There are various areas in which to specialize in Psychology: Social, Developmental, Health, Research, Clinical, Industrial/Organizational, School and Neurological to name a few. Also within these specializations there are a number of sub areas to inquire about. If you are interested in these areas or would like more information, come to Psychology Club meetings on Wednesday mornings at 10 a.m. or visit your Career Center in rooms 228 & 230 Montgomery Hall.

Humane Societies Snuggles Project

Do you love to crochet, knit, or sew? This a way you can help shelter animals.

The snuggles project was founded by a group called Hug for Homeless Animals in Oregon. Their goal is to give each animal in a shelter a "Snuggle" to cuddle up with for comfort in their cages.

A Snuggle is just a small crocheted, knitted, or sewn blanket.

The snuggle doesn't need to be perfect; the animals love them no matter what they look like. So, this is a great project for adults and even kids to learn on!

Snuggles can be any size from 14" by 14" to 36" by 36".
They don't need to be exact. They can be made from scraps of durable washable yarn and fabric. A tight stitch with no fringe or loose ends works best so the animals don't get tangled.

If you are interested in helping with the Venango County
Humane Society's Snuggles Project, you can drop off yarn (scraps are okay) at the shelter on Deep Hollow Road. Our volunteers will make it into Snuggles. If you would like to crochet, knit, or sew Snuggles leave your name at Venango County Humane Society (814) 677-4040, or call Carrie at
(814) 432-9436, or email scouch@usachoice.net

RHOADES CENTER A STUDENT UNION?? OR NOT??

When I enrolled at Clarion University/Venango Campus. I was told that as a student I could use Rhoades Center Public Dining Area when ever I needed to study, grab a bite to eat, or just sit and relax and talk to friends.

On Thursday, April 13th, 2000, there was a meeting scheduled to begin at 5:00 PM in Rhoades Center.

At 4:30, I wanted to sit and relax as I had a class at 5:00 PM and I would not be there when their meeting began. But I was informed that I wasn't allowed to sit in Rhoades Center public dining area.

I have no objections to any form of meeting being held in Rhoades Center. However, as a paying student, my only objection is being told I cannot use something that we all have paid a student activity fee for the use of.

Are we now not allowed to use the facilities of this campus when school officials think it necessary to keep us out of the way?

If the school wishes to hold Chamber of Commerce, or any other meetings in Rhoades Student Union in the future, they might think about publicly announcing their meetings and post them around campus. Also, we will be glad to make room in the Venango VOICE for this type of announcement.

ABUSE: VICTIM OR NOT?

You may be a victim of abuse. Degrading and berating comments like "Your Stupid", "Nobody likes you", "You could never get by without me", or "Your damned lucky to have me" are emotional violations, and are detrimental to how a person sees his or her self. The destruction of property during a verbal confrontation is also considered abuse.

Are you a victim of these types of actions? Do you suspect your friend or loved one may be the victim of abuse? Are you uncertain what to do or say?

You DON'T have to be the victim of abuse! You DO have Choices! Find out what they are!

For information about physical, emotional, and other forms of abuse, stop in room 234, Montgomery Hall, Wednesdays, Noon to 1 PM, the Crisis Center, Transit Bldg, 206 Seneca St. Oil City, or by E-Mail at firstresponse@usachoice.net. Counselor/Advocate Gayle Downey from the Crisis Center will answer any questions you may have regarding domestic violence, sexual assault, or other violent crimes.
